3. How We Collect Your Data

We collect data through:

- Direct communication (email, phone, WhatsApp, in-person)
- Online forms or documents you submit
- Third parties with your consent (e.g., solicitors, local authorities)
- Publicly available sources (e.g., Home Office updates relevant to your case)

4. Why We Use Your Data

We process your personal data for the following purposes:

- To provide immigration and advisory services
- To prepare and submit applications on your behalf
- To communicate with you about your case
- To comply with legal and regulatory obligations
- To maintain accurate records
- To improve our services and client experience

We only collect information that is necessary and relevant to your case.

5. Legal Basis for Processing

We rely on the following lawful bases:

- Consent – when you agree to us handling your data
- Contract – to deliver the services you request
- Legal obligation – compliance with UK law and regulatory requirements
- Legitimate interest – ensuring efficient and effective service delivery

For special category data, we rely on explicit consent or where processing is necessary for legal claims or substantial public interest.

6. How We Store and Protect Your Data

We use secure systems and procedures to protect your information, including:

- Encrypted digital storage
- Password-protected files
- Restricted staff access
- Secure disposal of documents
- Regular data protection training

We retain your data only for as long as necessary—typically 6 years after your case is closed, unless legal obligations require otherwise.

7. Sharing Your Data

We do not sell or trade your personal information.

We may share your data with:

- The Home Office
- Solicitors or barristers (with your consent)
- Local authorities or support agencies (where relevant)
- Professional partners assisting with your case
- Regulators or law enforcement when legally required

All third parties must comply with UK GDPR and maintain confidentiality.

8. Your Rights

You have the right to:

- Access your personal data
- Request correction of inaccurate information
- Request deletion (“right to be forgotten”)
- Restrict or object to processing
- Withdraw consent at any time
